

Index

- AMERICA'S CONTRIBUTION TO WORLD PEACE.
Samuel McChord Crothers, 190-2.
- American-Chinese relations. See China.
- American-Mexican relations. See Mexico.
- American-Nicaraguan relations. See Nicaragua.
- American rights. See: Caribbean Sea, Central America, China, Coolidge, Latin America, Mexico, Nicaragua, Russia.
- American-Russian relations. See Russia.
- Arbitration, cause of, 194.
- Asia, the problem of, 89.
- Asiatic Exclusion Law, 106.
- Australia, 54.
- BILLIKOFF, JACOB. Present Day Russian Conditions as Viewed by an Impartial Observer, 32-6.
- Bolshevism, See Russia.
- Book Department, 201.
- Britain, attitude toward China, 72-5.
- BRODIE, DONALD M. Essentials to Friendly Relations with China. 108-11.
- Buenos Aires, focus, 147.
- Calles. See Mexico.
- Canada, 54.
- CARIBBEAN, SOUTH AMERICA AND OUR POLICY IN. C. H. Haring, 146-52.
- CARIBBEAN SEA, THE DOCTRINE OF THE "SPECIAL INTEREST" OF THE UNITED STATES IN THE REGION OF. Wallace Thompson, 153-59.
- Caribbean Sea: agitation, 148; aims of United States distrusted, 149-50; Buenos Aires, 147; development of doctrine, 153; investments in region, 128; Monroe Doctrine, 146-7; phases of doctrine, 157-8; reasons for doctrine, 155-7; students' organizations, 148. See also Central America.
- CARPENTER, BOYD. The United States as a Power on the Pacific Coast, 89-96.
- CATT, CARRIE CHAPMAN. Elements in a Constructive Foreign Policy, 187-9.
- CENTRAL AMERICA, THE UNITED STATES AND. Policy of Clay and Knox. George T. Weitzel, 115-26.
- Central America: Canal project, 119; Clayton Bulwer Treaty, 118-9; "Dollar Diplomacy," 122; European interest, 117; Hay Pauncefote Treaty, 119; "Imperialism," 124-5; "Knox Note," 121; Mena's coup d'état, 121; policy of Clay, 116-21; policy of Knox, 121-6; revolutions, 123-124; special interests, 115; United States policy, 115-26. See also Latin America.
- CHINA, CHRISTIAN MISSIONS AND THE SITUATION IN. A. L. Warnshuis, 80-2.
- CHINA, ESSENTIALS TO FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH. Donald M. Brodie, 108-11.
- CHINA EXPECTS OF THE UNITED STATES, WHAT. Dorothy T. Wong, 83-5.
- CHINA, FRIENDSHIP OF THE UNITED STATES FOR. Sidney L. Gulick, 102-7.
- CHINA, INTERNAL REFORM IN. Henry W. Taft, 60-6.
- CHINA, SHALL THE UNITED STATES DRIFT INTO WAR WITH. Nathaniel Peffer, 86-8.
- CHINA, THE ATTITUDE AND POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES TOWARD. Stanley K. Hornbeck, 48-51.
- CHINA, THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES TOWARD, Henry Kittredge Norton, 97-101.
- CHINA, THE UNITED STATES AND. Edward H. Hume, 67-71.
- CHINA TODAY, HUMAN NEEDS BEING WORKED OUT IN. T. Z. Koo, 112-4.
- China: aims 101; American interests in, 49; Americans in, 100; attitude of Britain, 72-4, 75; attitude of the United States, 50, 51; authority lacking in, 48; awakening spirit in, 69; boycotting of Hong Kong, 72, 73; communism, 61; complex problem of, 98; concrete action in, 70; control in, 90; coöperation with, 56, 57; course in 1925, 86, 87; dangers, 110; debt, 54; diplomatic futilities, 52; early government, 60; economic realities, 53; expenditures, 54; exports, 54; foreign control in, 90; friendship of United States for, 6; good-will for the United States, 85; grievances, 77, 78; history of, 102-5; history of coöperation, 50; imports, 54; interest, 54; investments in, 59, 80, 83; issue fundamental, 112; lack of authority, 54; Manchu Dynasty, 60; meeting the crisis, 55; misrepresentation, 110; Missionary schools, 80; moderates, 105, 106; Nationalist party, 61; news exploited, 109; philosophy, 67; pleas of, 113, 114; political futilities, 52; political sentiment in, 63; position of United States, 86; post offices, 54; present situation, 88; press exploited, 109; psychological complex, 67; radicals, 105, 106; railroads, 54; recommendations, 69, 70; reforms, 64, 65; relations of United States with, 5, 102-7; relations with Russia, 17; requirements of America, 108-9; requisites, 57-9; revenue, 54; revolutions, 98, 99; Russia and, 62, 63, 105; sentiment in, 63; Soviet Government and, 91, 92; stability of young, 62; tariff autonomy, 64; tariff situation, 83, 84; United States friendship for, 102-7; upheavals, 72; United States policy, 49, 66, 68, 69, 93, 94, 95, 97, 101, 113, 193.

Index

- AMERICA'S CONTRIBUTION TO WORLD PEACE.
Samuel McChord Crothers, 190-2.
- American-Chinese relations. See China.
- American-Mexican relations. See Mexico.
- American-Nicaraguan relations. See Nicaragua.
- American rights. See: Caribbean Sea, Central America, China, Coolidge, Latin America, Mexico, Nicaragua, Russia.
- American-Russian relations. See Russia.
- Arbitration, cause of, 194.
- Asia, the problem of, 89.
- Asiatic Exclusion Law, 106.
- Australia, 54.
- BILLIKOFF, JACOB. Present Day Russian Conditions as Viewed by an Impartial Observer, 32-6.
- Bolshevism, See Russia.
- Book Department, 201.
- Britain, attitude toward China, 72-5.
- BRODIE, DONALD M. Essentials to Friendly Relations with China. 108-11.
- Buenos Aires, focus, 147.
- Calles. See Mexico.
- Canada, 54.
- CARIBBEAN, SOUTH AMERICA AND OUR POLICY IN. C. H. Haring, 146-52.
- CARIBBEAN SEA, THE DOCTRINE OF THE "SPECIAL INTEREST" OF THE UNITED STATES IN THE REGION OF. Wallace Thompson, 153-59.
- Caribbean Sea: agitation, 148; aims of United States distrusted, 149-50; Buenos Aires, 147; development of doctrine, 153; investments in region, 128; Monroe Doctrine, 146-7; phases of doctrine, 157-8; reasons for doctrine, 155-7; students' organizations, 148. See also Central America.
- CARPENTER, BOYD. The United States as a Power on the Pacific Coast, 89-96.
- CATT, CARRIE CHAPMAN. Elements in a Constructive Foreign Policy, 187-9.
- CENTRAL AMERICA, THE UNITED STATES AND. Policy of Clay and Knox. George T. Weitzel, 115-26.
- Central America: Canal project, 119; Clayton Bulwer Treaty, 118-9; "Dollar Diplomacy," 122; European interest, 117; Hay Pauncefote Treaty, 119; "Imperialism," 124-5; "Knox Note," 121; Mena's coup d'état, 121; policy of Clay, 116-21; policy of Knox, 121-6; revolutions, 123-124; special interests, 115; United States policy, 115-26. See also Latin America.
- CHINA, CHRISTIAN MISSIONS AND THE SITUATION IN. A. L. Warnshuis, 80-2.
- CHINA, ESSENTIALS TO FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH. Donald M. Brodie, 108-11.
- CHINA EXPECTS OF THE UNITED STATES, WHAT. Dorothy T. Wong, 83-5.
- CHINA, FRIENDSHIP OF THE UNITED STATES FOR. Sidney L. Gulick, 102-7.
- CHINA, INTERNAL REFORM IN. Henry W. Taft, 60-6.
- CHINA, SHALL THE UNITED STATES DRIFT INTO WAR WITH. Nathaniel Peffer, 86-8.
- CHINA, THE ATTITUDE AND POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES TOWARD. Stanley K. Hornbeck, 48-51.
- CHINA, THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES TOWARD, Henry Kittredge Norton, 97-101.
- CHINA, THE UNITED STATES AND. Edward H. Hume, 67-71.
- CHINA TODAY, HUMAN NEEDS BEING WORKED OUT IN. T. Z. Koo, 112-4.
- China: aims 101; American interests in, 49; Americans in, 100; attitude of Britain, 72-4, 75; attitude of the United States, 50, 51; authority lacking in, 48; awakening spirit in, 69; boycotting of Hong Kong, 72, 73; communism, 61; complex problem of, 98; concrete action in, 70; control in, 90; coöperation with, 56, 57; course in 1925, 86, 87; dangers, 110; debt, 54; diplomatic futilities, 52; early government, 60; economic realities, 53; expenditures, 54; exports, 54; foreign control in, 90; friendship of United States for, 6; good-will for the United States, 85; grievances, 77, 78; history of, 102-5; history of coöperation, 50; imports, 54; interest, 54; investments in, 59, 80, 83; issue fundamental, 112; lack of authority, 54; Manchu Dynasty, 60; meeting the crisis, 55; misrepresentation, 110; Missionary schools, 80; moderates, 105, 106; Nationalist party, 61; news exploited, 109; philosophy, 67; pleas of, 113, 114; political futilities, 52; political sentiment in, 63; position of United States, 86; post offices, 54; present situation, 88; press exploited, 109; psychological complex, 67; radicals, 105, 106; railroads, 54; recommendations, 69, 70; reforms, 64, 65; relations of United States with, 5, 102-7; relations with Russia, 17; requirements of America, 108-9; requisites, 57-9; revenue, 54; revolutions, 98, 99; Russia and, 62, 63, 105; sentiment in, 63; Soviet Government and, 91, 92; stability of young, 62; tariff autonomy, 64; tariff situation, 83, 84; United States friendship for, 102-7; upheavals, 72; United States policy, 49, 66, 68, 69, 93, 94, 95, 97, 101, 113, 193.

- CHINESE NATIONALISTS, THE AIMS OF THE, P. T. Lau, 72-9.
- CHINESE CRISIS, ECONOMIC BACKGROUND OF THE. Charles Hodges, 52-9.
- Clayton Bulwer Treaty, 118-9.
- Communism. See China, Russia.
- Communist Party in Russia, structure of, 30.
- Companies, Latin America, 132.
- COOLIDGE, PRESIDENT. The Foreign Policy of the United States, 1-7.
- CROTHERS, SAMUEL McCHORD. America's Contribution to World Peace, 190-2.
- CUTTER, VICTOR M. Relations of United States Companies with Latin America. 130-3.
- Czarism, See Russia.
- DAVIS, JEROME. One Hundred and Fifty Years of American Russian Relations, 1777-1927, 18-31.
- Department of State. See: Caribbean Sea, Central America, China, Coolidge, Latin America, Mexico, Nicaragua, Russia.
- Diaz. See Nicaragua.
- Diplomatic Relations of the United States. See United States Foreign Policy.
- DODDS, H. W. The United States and Nicaragua, 134-41.
- Education: Nicaragua, 145; Russia, 15.
- FAIR, UNSETTLED, OR INCREASING CLOUDINESS. Ira Jewell Williams, 185-6.
- FOREIGN POLICY, ELEMENTS IN A CONSTRUCTIVE. Carrie Chapman Catt, 187-9.
- FOREIGN POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES. Excerpts from the address of President Coolidge at the dinner of the United Press at New York City, April 25, 1927, 1-7.
- Foreign policy: General history, 187; new one needed, 188; principles lacking, 189. See, also: Caribbean Sea, Central America, China, Coolidge, Latin America, Mexico, Nicaragua, Russia.
- France: population in China controlled by, 90; territory in China controlled by, 90.
- Government, Russia, 15.
- Great Britain: population controlled in China, 90; territory controlled in China, 90.
- Guatemala. See Central America.
- GULICK, SIDNEY L. Friendship of the United States for China, 102-7.
- HAPGOOD, NORMAN. Public Opinion on Mexico, 176-9.
- HARD, WILLIAM. The Difficulties of Idealism in International Relations, 160-3.
- HARING, C. H. South America and Our Policy in the Caribbean, 146-52.
- Hay-Pauncefote Treaty, 119.
- HODGES, CHARLES. The Economic Background of the Chinese Crisis, 52-9.
- HORNBECK, STANLEY K. The Attitude and Policy of the United States Toward China, 48-51.
- Human needs in China, 112-4.
- HUME, EDWARD H. The United States and China, 67-71.
- HYDE, CHARLES CHENEY. A Possible Method of Adjusting the Controversy with Mexico, 180-4.
- Industry, Russia, 15.
- Inter-American Commission of Inquiry and Conciliation, 129.
- INTERNATIONAL MORALITY, NEEDED: A NEW CODE OF. James G. McDonald, 193-6.
- INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, THE DIFFICULTIES OF IDEALISM IN. William Hard, 160-3.
- International relations. See: Caribbean Sea, Central America, China, Coolidge, Latin America, Mexico, Nicaragua, Russia.
- KERENSKY, ALEXANDER. Russia and Bolshevism, 42-7.
- KOO, T. Z. Human Needs Being Worked out in China Today, 112-4.
- LATIN AMERICA, RECONCILIATION OF FACT WITH SENTIMENT IN OUR DEALINGS WITH. William R. Shepherd, 127-9.
- LATIN AMERICA, RELATIONS OF UNITED STATES COMPANIES WITH. Victor M. Cutter, 130-3.
- Latin America: conditions, 130; difficulties, 130-1; Monroe Doctrine, 127-9; mutual needs, 130; opportunities, 131; United States policy, 194. See also Central America.
- LAU, P. T. The Aims of the Chinese Nationalists, 72-9.
- Manchu Dynasty. See China.
- MCDONALD, JAMES G. Needed: A New Code of International Morality, 193-6.
- MEXICO, A POSSIBLE METHOD OF ADJUSTING THE CONTROVERSY WITH. Charles Cheney Hyde, 180-4.
- MEXICO, PUBLIC OPINION ON. Norman Hapgood, 176-9.
- MEXICO, PROTECTING THE RIGHTS OF AMERICANS IN. Guy Stevens, 164-7.
- MEXICAN SITUATION, FUNDAMENTALS IN THE PRESENT. J. Fred Rippey, 168-71.
- Mexico: activities of United States and, 161-2; agrarian movement, 173; and United States interests, 166, 167; army of, 173; attitude of, 185-6; common interest, 182, 183; current controversy, 172; current issue, 180, 181; government, 173, 174; joint commission for settlement, 183; labor movement, 173; New Mexico distinguished, 172-5; oil interests, 165,

- 168; petroleum law, 164, 165, 185, 186; policy of United States, 170, 171; progressives, 176, 177; property rights of Americans, 168; relations with United States, 2, 3; rights of Americans in, 2, 164; seizure of property, 3; situation 1857 to date 2-4; solution, 166; State Department policy, 178; suggested policy, 175; United States policy, 170, 171, 178. See also Central America.
- MEXICO'S INTERNAL POLITICS AND AMERICAN DIPLOMACY. Frank Tannenbaum, 172-5.
- Moderates, Chinese, 105, 106.
- Monroe Doctrine, 127-9, 137, 141, 142, 146, 147, 153, 154, 160, 194.
- Nationalist Party. See China.
- News, exploited, 109.
- NICARAGUA, GEOGRAPHIC DETERMINISM IN. Whiting Williams, 142-5.
- NICARAGUA, THE UNITED STATES AND. H. W. Dodds, 134-41.
- Nicaragua: American rights in, 5; bankers, 140, 141; by-products of geography, 142; canal route, 160; Claims Commission, 125; constitutionalism, 136; education, 145; history, 134; intervention in 163; Monroe Doctrine, 142; motive of commerce, 160; needs, 144, 145; politics, 135; relations of United States with, 4; revolution, 134, 138; tendencies of geography, 143, 144; United States help needed, 145; United States policy, 139, 151, 152. See also Caribbean, Central America, Latin America.
- NORTON, HENRY KITTREDGE. The Attitude of the United States Toward China, 97-101.
- NOYES, PIERREPONT B. Russia Today, 14-7.
- PACIFIC COAST, THE UNITED STATES AS A POWER ON THE. Boyd Carpenter, 89-96.
- PEACE, MOBILIZING FOR. Charles Stelzle, 197-200.
- Peace: ethos of, 190-1; humanitarian program and, 199; loyalty and, 190; manhood and, 190; mobilizing for, 197-200; moral equivalent for war, 199; national policy of, 198; present need, 192; public opinion and, 191; religious liberty and, 198; social unrest and, 198; world interdependence, 197.
- PEPPER, NATHANIEL. Shall the United States Drift Into War with China, 86-8.
- Political Science, contributions of United States to, 8.
- Portugal, 90.
- Press, exploited, 109.
- Progressives in Congress, 176.
- Public opinion, 109, 191.
- RIPPY, J. FRED. Fundamentals in the Present Mexican Situation, 168-71.
- Revolution: Central America, 123, 124; Chinese, 98, 99, 105, 106; Nicaragua, 134, 138; Russian, 11, 12, 16.
- RUSSIA AND BOLSHEVISM. Alexander Kerensky, 42-7.
- RUSSIA AS VIEWED BY AN AMERICAN BUSINESS MAN, THE UNITED STATES AND. William S. Wasserman, 37-41.
- RUSSIA TODAY. Pierrepont B. Noyes, 14-7.
- Russia: Bolshevism, 42-7; chaos in, 46; China and, 17, 105; communist party, 30; communism, 14, 40, 33; debt, 17, 38, 39; economic regeneration, 43; economic situation, 33; education, 15, 45; estranging difficulties, 38; government of, 14; influence on China, 62, 63; leadership, 34; migration, 45; mutual need, 38; need for capital, 43; peasants, 37; politically and socially, 15; popular picture, 14; population in China controlled by, 90; position of the United States, 12, 13; present government, 37; recognition of, 35, 36, 40, 41; relations with the United States, 18-31; revolutions, 11, 12; sentiment in, 34; stability of government, 34; stability of people, 15; unemployment, 44; United States policy, 12, 13.
- RUSSIAN CONDITIONS AS VIEWED BY AN IMPARTIAL OBSERVER, PRESENT-DAY. Jacob Billikopf, 32-6.
- RUSSIAN RELATIONS, 1777-1927, ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS OF AMERICAN-. Jerome Davis, 18-31.
- SACASA. See Nicaragua.
- SHEPHERD, WILLIAM R. Reconciliation of Fact with Sentiment in Our Dealings with Latin America, 127-9.
- Soviet Constitution, dogmas of, 10, 11. See also Russia.
- SOVIET PROBLEM, SOME OBSERVATIONS OF THE. Edmund A. Walsh, 8-13.
- "Special Interest" Doctrine. See Caribbean.
- STELZLE, CHARLES. Mobilizing for Peace, 197-200.
- STEVENS, GUY. Protecting the Rights of Americans in, 164-7.
- TAFT, HENRY W. Internal Reform in China, 60-6.
- TANNENBAUM, FRANK. Mexico's Internal Politics and American Diplomacy, 172-5.
- Tariff, China, 64.
- THOMPSON, WALLACE. The Doctrine of the "Special Interest" of the United States in the Region of the Caribbean Sea, 153-9.
- United States, Foreign Policy of: See, Caribbean Sea, Central America, China, Coolidge, Latin America, Mexico, Nicaragua, Russia.
- United States, investments, 49, 80, 128.
- WALSH, EDMUND A. Some observations of the Soviet Problem, 8-13.

WARNSHUIS, A. L. Christian Missions and the Situation in China, 80-2.
 WASSERMAN, William S. The United States and Russia as Viewed by an American Business Man, 37-41.
 WEITZEL, GEORGE T. The United States and Central America—Policy of Clay and Knox. 115-26.

WILLIAM IHA JEWELL. Fair, Unsettled, or Increasing Cloudiness, 185-6.
 WILLIAMS, WHITING. Geographic Determinism in. 142-5.
 WONG, DOROTHY T. What China Expects of the United States, 83-5.
 WORLD PEACE, AMERICA'S CONTRIBUTION TO. Samuel McChord Crothers, 190-2.